THE MONROES revive the golden era of rock 'n' roll from the 50s and 60s – with passionate musical joy, harmonious vocals, and an energetic stage show that excites the audience and keeps them on their feet.

For over two decades, this stylish quartet has stood for captivating live performances – of course, always dressed in ties. Shortly after their founding in 1997, THE MONROES were celebrated by fans and media as "Local Heroes." Today, with more than 1,500 concerts both domestically and internationally, numerous TV appearances, and strong positions in radio and streaming charts, they are among the most sought-after live bands in the country. For many, they are nothing less than the "Live Kings of Rock 'n' Roll."
